

GLITTERGOLD LANDS FEATURE AT PIMLICO

August Belmont's Chestnut Colt Defeats Big Field of Aged Sprinters.

KEWESSA CAPTURES OPENER

Pimlico, Md., Nov. 7.—August Belmont's chestnut colt, Glittergold, met and defeated an aged field of sprinters this afternoon and brought joy to the large crowd in attendance, for the son of Hastings was backed heavily by nearly every one at the course.

Billy Oliver, the old-timer, won his first race in many moons when Kewessa captured the opener, Kewessa, like Glittergold, was a pot purchase, so the verdict was extremely popular.

COUNSEL FOR BEILISS COMMENCE ARGUMENTS

Brother of Russian Minister of the Interior Makes Opening Address to Jury—Verdict by Monday.

Kieff, Russia, Nov. 7.—The prosecution today finished its arguments for the conviction of Mendel Beiliss, on trial for the murder of Andre Yankin, a brother of the Minister of the Interior, M. Grosseberg, the only Jew among the counsel for Beiliss, was to have made the opening address, but at the last moment it was decided that Maklakoff might have more effect upon the jury on account of his being a Christian.

In the opening remarks, Maklakoff made a magnificent attempt to quench the fierce flames of anti-Semitism which was aroused by the prosecution.

He maintained that Beiliss was innocent of the crime, and said if the police would follow the trial laid bare during the trial they would find sufficient evidence to set Beiliss at liberty without a trial, and that Vera Cherbryak would be placed in the dock.
